

INVITATION

Join the Ars Sacra Festival with your programmes!

17TH ARS SACRA FESTIVAL – 16-24 SEPTEMBER 2023

Motto: “Seek peace” (Psalm 34:15)

The aim of the Ars Sacra Festival programmes is to enable people of today to learn about European culture with its traditional Judeo-Christian foundations and to discover its richness through art. We welcome everyone from all over Hungary and across the border to participate in the festival with artistic activities.

WHO CAN JOIN?

- Museums, exhibition spaces, galleries and studios - with sacred exhibitions, guided tours, museum educational activities
- Cultural centres, educational centres - by involving theatres, visual and applied artists, performing artists, movement artists
- Visual and applied artists - with exhibitions, open studios
- Musicians - with concerts
- Theatres - with plays on sacred themes, literary evenings
- Churches - by introducing the church, holding exhibitions, presentations and concerts
- Schools - with literary performances, recitation competitions, exhibitions, music programmes
- Local historians, art historians, architects - by presenting sacred buildings, organising thematic excursions and walks

HOW YOU CAN JOIN:

Register at www.ars-sacra.hu and upload your programme
by 15 July 2023

You can apply with a new or existing programme that can be visited free of charge or viewed online - even for a short period - during the Festival.

Programmes uploaded after the deadline will not be lost, however, for technical reasons they will no longer be included in the printed programme booklet, but will be announced on the website.

ARS SACRA FOUNDATION

Phone: +36 30 145 1284; mail: ars-sacra@ars-sacra.hu

Address: 1014 Budapest, Tárnok utca 5.

www.ars-sacra.hu