

Call for Church Guitar Bands

We cordially invite you to this year's Open Churches Day of the Ars Sacra Festival, which will take place on Saturday, September 12, 2026. Our goal is to show the treasures of our Church's guitar services in as many churches as possible, in connection with the Ars Sacra Festival.

On Open Churches Day, let us make visible another aspect of our extremely rich musical culture to those interested and our believing brothers and sisters, thus contributing to the festival's missionary goal.

We invite you to join us for a guitar service with your own band or guitar choir on this day at 6:00 PM! We recommend that guitar bands serve in churches that have Saturday evening Mass, and where there is no Mass, there can be a praise evening or adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. After the Mass, we would be happy if guitar adoration and praise evenings were held in as many churches as possible.

This year's motto of Ars Sacra is: "I give you hope and a future" Jer 59:11, commemorating the 20th anniversary of the Budapest City Mission, the fruit of which was the birth of the Ars Sacra Festival.

You can apply on the Ars Sacra website, if you get stuck, feel free to contact us!

We would like to ask that you enter "Guitarist" in the search terms. This will make it easy to track the joining of guitar choirs.

Our goal is to get as many communities involved in the Open Church Day initiative as possible, so we would be grateful if you could spread the word among your friends. We welcome the participation of bands from any Christian denomination.

It would be great if many voices could be heard at different locations on this day.

We look forward to your questions and applications!
